The meeting balances work and play by inviting physicians to attend themed social events after daytime lectures. This year's evening themes: James Bond (which inspired the meeting's stylized name, VBS|004) and Día de los Muertos.

S.K. Steve Houston III, MD, and Jackson Houston

VBS Organizing Committee members Derek Y. Kunimoto, MD, JD; Charles W. Mango, MD; and Thomas A. Albini, MD

The first night of the VBS meeting showcases the Fellows' Foray, a competition that invites retina fellows to submit the most interesting video surgical case. The Fellows' Foray underscores the unique surgical scope of VBS meetings.
